

Connecting Communities to Build Financial Well-Being

Join What It's Worth and the Federal Reserve System "Connecting Communities" initiative for a webinar on Tuesday, June 14 from 3:00 pm to 4:00 pm ET.

This webinar will feature speakers from the What It's Worth book and will cover promising practices for building financial well-being. Speakers will discuss approaches and services that integrate financial capability in families' lives such as peer-to-peer lending circles and homebuyer education and counseling.

Speakers include:

Laura Choi, Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco

Kate Griffin, CFED

Jose Quinonez, Mission Asset Fund

Paul Weech, NeighborWorks America

Follow #WhatItsWorth on Twitter to join the conversation.

Date: Tuesday, June 14, 2016

Time: 3:00 pm - 4:00 pm ET

---

About What It's Worth

Through more than 30 essays authored by experts from across a broad range of fields, What It's Worth: Strengthening the Financial Future of Families, Communities and the Nation, will provide a 360-degree view of the financial problems and challenges millions of American households face, the enormous creativity and innovation already happening to increase financial well-being, and how we can implement proven and emerging solutions.

Visit us at strongfinancialfuture.org and be the first to know about book updates, local events and more.

